

Flag Song

Lakota

T̄huŋkášilayapi, t̄hawápaha kiŋhaŋ oíhaŋke šní hé nážiŋ kté ló.

Iyóh̄lateya oyáte kiŋhán wičhíčhaŋiŋ ktá čhá, léčhamuŋ weló.

Literal Translation

Grandfather they have bonnet (flag) the end not there to stand will underneath the people they grow (they prosper) will and so therefore I do this.

The presidents flag will stand forever, under it the people will live (prosper/grow), therefore I do this. Or Under the presidents flag, the people will live and prosper, therefore I do this (sing the song).

Special Thanks to Mike Beardt, teacher at White River Public School District, who provided both the Lakota lyrics, and the English Translation.
